

End-of-year speaking test 1

About you

1 Talk about you.

- Describe your personality.
- What are your likes and dislikes?
- Talk about something interesting that happened to you. When was it? What happened? How did you feel?
- What things do you want to do in the future?

Role play

2 Complete the dialogue with the expressions. Then practise the dialogue.

definitely how was your it's OK, I suppose what about you what do you reckon

- A Hi. (1) _____ holiday?
- B It was great! We went to the USA.
- A That's amazing! I want to go there one day. Do you think you'll go there again next year?
- B Yes, (2) _____.
It was really good fun. Look, this is the flat where we stayed in New York.
(3) _____?
- A (4) _____, but I prefer holidays by the sea.
- B Yes, I love going to the beach, too. Anyway, (5) _____? How was your holiday?
- A It was brilliant! I spent two weeks on the beach.

EXTENSION Imagine you are talking to a friend about the summer holidays.

- A ask your partner if he / she enjoyed their holiday
- B respond and say where you went
- A respond with interest and ask if he / she will go there again next year
- B respond and show a photo
- A express your opinion about the photo and talk about your holiday
- B show interest

Photo description

3 Describe the photos.

Photo A

- What animal can you see in the photo?
- What is it doing?
- Where does this animal live?
- Do you think this animal is intelligent? Why?
- What other clever things can animals do?

Photo B

- What is happening in the photo?
- What are all the people doing?
- Do you think this is dangerous? Why?
- What personalities do you think these people have got? Why?
- How will these people feel later?

EXTENSION Answer the questions.

- What do you think is the most intelligent animal? Why?
- Do you think that sometimes animals are more intelligent than people? Why?
- Why do some people enjoy doing dangerous activities?
- What new sport or hobby do you want to try? Why?

A

B

