

Vertebrates

- fish
- they live in water
- they have got scales and fins
- they have gills instead of lungs
- most fish lay eggs

- ## Amphibians
- they live in water and land
 - they have got lungs and four legs
 - they lay their eggs in water

- ## Mammals
- they feed their babies milk
 - they live on land
 - but some mammals, like whales, live in water

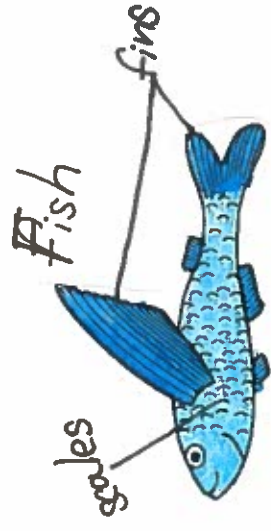

- ## Reptiles
- they live on land
 - they have got lungs and scales
 - they have got four legs, except for snakes

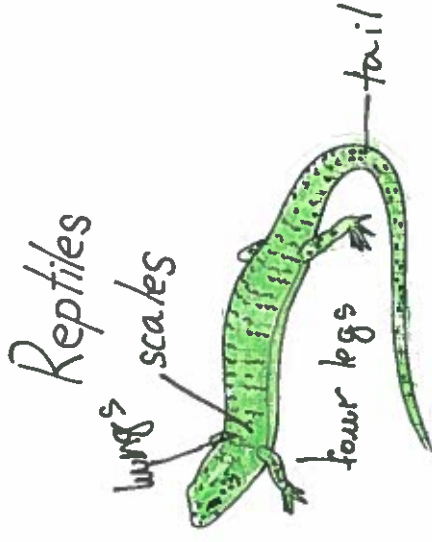

- ## Birds
- they live on land
 - but some live in water
 - they have got feathers, two legs and two wings
 - all birds lay eggs

Vertebrates - stavorce

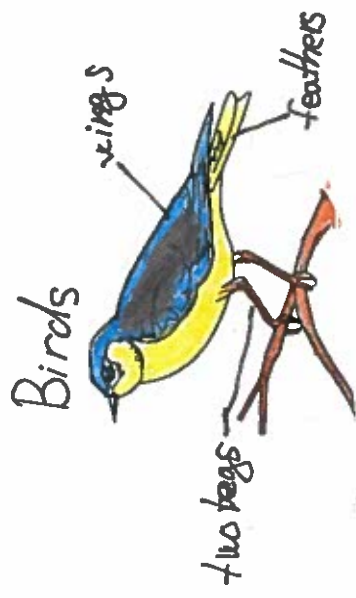

- ## Fish
- cold-blooded
 - they live in water
 - they have got scales, fins
 - they have got gills too

- ## Reptiles
- most reptiles live on land
 - they have got wings and scales
 - and four legs
 - they are cold-blooded

- ## Amphibians
- when amphibians are young
 - they live in water
 - they have got lungs and four legs

- ## Birds
- live on land
 - they have got feathers
 - two legs and two wings
 - all birds lay eggs

- ## Mammals
- warm-blooded
 - live on land
 - whales live in water
 - they have all got lungs
 - most of them have got hair
 - and four legs