

Unit 5 speaking test

About you

1 Talk about your abilities.

- Can you paint, sing or cook? What things can you do well?
- Is there anything you can't do now, but want to do in the future?
- What things couldn't you do when you were younger, but you can do now?
- Compare yourself to someone else in your family. For example, are you more artistic than someone else in your family?
- Is there anything you are the best at in your class? What do you want to be the best at?

Role play

2 Complete the dialogue with the words in the box. Then practise the dialogue.

a bit better by into who's

- A What are you doing?
- B I'm looking for a birthday present for my mum. She's (1) _____ music, so I want to buy her a CD.
- A What do you think of this one?
- B (2) _____ it by?
- A It's (3) _____ Coldplay.
- B Well, it's OK, but I think this one's (4) _____.
- A Do you think so?
- B Yes, this one's by Kaiser Chiefs. The other one's (5) _____ boring.
- A Yes, I think you're right.

EXTENSION Imagine you are buying a DVD as a present.

- A ask what your partner is doing
- B explain that you are looking for a DVD for a birthday present for someone, say who it is for
- A ask for your partner's opinion of a DVD
- B compare your partner's DVD with another one and explain why your DVD is better
- A agree that your partner has the best DVD

Photo description

3 Describe the photos.

Photo A

- Describe the animals. Which adjectives can you use to talk about them?
- What can these animals do?
- Compare the animals. How are they similar? How are they different?
- Do you like these animals? Why?
- Which animal do you prefer? Why?

Photo B

- Describe the sea animal. Which adjectives can you use to talk about it?
- What does this animal do?
- Compare this animal to other sea animals. How is it different? How is it similar?
- Do you like this animal? Why?

EXTENSION Answer the questions.

- Compare all the animals in the photos.
- What is your favourite animal? Why?
- What is the most intelligent animal? Why?
- What animals don't you like? Why?

A

B

