

End-of-term speaking test 2

About you

1 Talk about you.

- Are you a sports fan? What sports do you like?
- What sports or hobbies can you do now? Could you do any of these activities when you were six?
- Are you a daredevil? Give examples.
- What daring things do you want to do in the future?

Role play

2 Complete the dialogue with the expressions. Then practise the dialogue.

are you doing anything sounds good shall I meet you are you OK better than

- A Hi, Matt. You look worried.
(1) _____?
- B Hi, Jess. (2) _____ on Friday? We're having a party at the youth club.
- B (3) _____. So what's the problem?
- A We haven't got any music!
- B Don't worry. I've got loads! I've got rock, pop, and heavy metal.
- A Great. Bring the pop and rock music. It's
(4) _____ heavy metal!
- B OK! (5) _____ at the youth club, then?
- A Yeah, great!

EXTENSION Imagine you are talking to some friends who are organizing a basketball match at the youth club on Saturday.

- A ask your friend if he / she is OK
- B explain that you are organizing a party and say when and where it is, invite your partner
- A accept and ask what the problem is
- B explain that you haven't got much food
- A offer to bring sandwiches or pizza
- B say which food you prefer and give a reason
- A agree and say when and where you'll meet your friend

Photo description

3 Describe the photos.

Photo A

- What has happened?
- What was the person doing when it happened?
- What is the person doing now?
- What do you think is going to happen next?
- Is this sport always dangerous? Why?

Photo B

- What has happened?
- What was the person doing when it happened?
- What are the people doing now?
- What do you think is going to happen next?
- Is skateboarding always dangerous? What should people do to stop injuries?

EXTENSION Answer the questions.

- Look at both photos. Which sport do you think is the most dangerous? Why?
- What sports do you think are dangerous? Why?
- Have you ever injured yourself while you were doing a sport? What happened?

A

B

