

BULLYING IS NEVER OK! CLASSROOM DISCUSSION STARTER

Activity 1: Match the type of bullying with behaviour

Introduction

Aim: Students understand when various behaviours constitute physical, verbal or social bullying, or if they are not actually bullying.

Approximate duration: 10–15 minutes, depending on discussion.

Format: Small group or whole class.

Important note: Ensure you have read the section of the Teacher notes document headed Before you run the classroom discussion starter activities.

The behaviour examples on the cards do not always specify if they are happening in person or online; ensure you consider both contexts where the bullying behaviours can happen.

Instructions

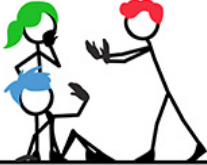

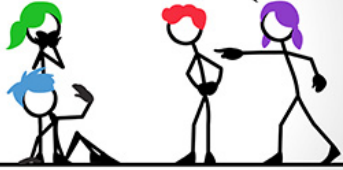

1. Decide which format you will use and prepare the relevant worksheet. Two worksheets are available for use with small groups (print on A4) or the whole class (print on A3). For small group format print and cut up the Behaviour cards
2. If you haven't already done so, remind students of the definition of bullying from the animation:
Bullying is when someone uses 'power' they have over you to try to hurt or upset you again and again.
3. Explain the activity: The video said there were three main types of bullying. Who can remember them? This activity will help us learn more about the different types of bullying.
4. Then either read out the examples of the behaviours to the class (in a random order) or provide students with the behaviour cards (printed and cut out) to place on the Small group worksheet.
5. You can refer to the Answer guide as students work through the activities. Some examples of behaviours may raise discussion and disagreement. For any behaviour, the context, power imbalance and repetition are all important in establishing if the behaviour is bullying. For example, saying mean things about another person may be bullying if a power imbalance and repetition exist, but may not be bullying if it happens between equals and only once.
6. At the conclusion of Activity 1, wrap up with the suggested concluding activity in the Teacher notes about the National Day of Action against Bullying and Violence, or move on to Activity 2.
